

In 1841, the Republic of Texas gave free land to 600 families to live on, farm, and build communities.

Lewisville now has passenger trains that connect to cities all over Dallas and Fort Worth.