

In 1918, fire swept through downtown Lewisville and burned many buildings.

Lewisville was part of a giant music festival called the Texas International Pop Festival.